It is recommended to use .pdf attachments (even though Word attachments are also possible). Do not worry if, once a file is attached, a “strange” icon is displayed: this is “normal”. ASSESSMENT OF CONTROL (CONDITION C)

Introduction

Tenderers are informed that the notion of control will be assessed with regard to the whole entity and is not limited to the control of the entity as regards the activities which relate to the subject matter of the tender

Any public entity⁴ is automatically considered to be controlled by the state in which it has a registered office. Any other entity subject to participation condition shall fill and sign Annex XIII- Part 2.

Each entity subject to participating conditions has to assess how ‘control’ is exercised in its entity, and whether there is a possibility that a ‘third country’ or a ‘third-country entity’ influences strategic decisions.

How is ‘control’ by a ‘third country’ or ‘third-country entity’ assessed?

‘Legal entities’ are to assess the ‘control’ by a third-country entity by checking the and providing the contracting authority with supporting evidences for the following elements:

- a) Ownership structure and specific rights (i.e. shareholders rights)
- b) Corporate governance
- c) Commercial links conferring control
- d) Financial links conferring control
- e) Other sources of control

The information that the entity will provide as part of the proposal (contained in Annex XIII- Part 2) will be used by EUSPA to assess if it is subject to ‘control’ by a ‘third country’ or by a ‘third-country entity’.

Given the variety of individual situations where decisive influences may exist, the contracting authority may request additional evidence during the evaluation phases as regards legal or factual control.

a) Information on the legal entity

Evidence to be provided in Annex XIII- Part 2 regarding the ‘legal entity’

The entity subject to participating conditions need to provide:

- information regarding the entity,
- Report/minutes of the last three shareholders meetings

⁴ Public entities are considered those entities where the only involved bodies in their decision making process are the authorities of one or more Member States, or one of some their territorial division.

b) Ownership structure and specific rights (i.e. shareholders rights)

Evidence to be provided in Annex XIII- Part 2 regarding ownership structure and specific rights.

The entity subject to participating conditions need to provide:

- information on the nationality of the individual ultimate owners⁵ that detain at least 5% of the capital or voting rights in the ‘legal entity’;
- Information on the rights attached to the shares detained;
- the instruments of constitution, and memorandum and articles of association if they are contained in a separate instrument, shareholders’ agreements, or other relevant documents regarding the taking of decisions within the company
- a graph that includes :
 - the different ownership layers up to their ultimate owners.
 - For each layer, the existence of third-country individual or third-country entity controlling that intermediate layer, up to the ultimate owners of all the layers involved.

Additional evidence that may be requested during the evaluation process regarding ownership structure and specific rights.

- Evidence on the absence of third-country ‘control’ of each intermediate layer, up to the ultimate owner, according to the graph describing the chain of control of the ‘legal entity’,
- Copy of ID card or passport of the ultimate owner(s).

c) Corporate governance

Evidence to be provided in Annex XIII - Part 2 regarding corporate governance:

- Description of the decision-making bodies and their composition;
- The relevant rules regarding election, appointment, nomination or tenure of members of the decision-making bodies;

⁵ Ultimate owners are always natural persons (except in cases of public entities) who ultimately control the legal entity. Such control can be direct or indirect :

- When ‘legal entity’ shares are directly “owned” by individual shareholders (natural persons that own and control the company, and act under its own name), those shall be considered a ultimate owners.
- When a ‘legal entity’ shares are indirectly owned by ultimate owners, several ownership layers can exist between the ‘legal entity’ shareholders and the ultimate owners (the natural persons that “own” and control the company).

In case of a nominee, fund, trust or any other institutional investment instrument (or arrangement) holding the shares, the requirement of not being subject to ‘control’ by a ‘third country’ or by a ‘third-country entity’ may be satisfied at the level of the nominee, trustee, or other register owner, provided that the latter is an EU national or a national from an associated country and that it exercises decisive influence over that instrument or arrangement (i.e. takes the investment decisions).

- The decision-making procedures.

d) Commercial links conferring control

Evidence to be provided in Annex XIII - Part 2 regarding commercial dependence:

- Information on companies or individuals of ‘third countries’ that have a contractual relationship with the ‘legal entity’ which can give them ‘control’ over it. If this commercial relationship is with a company or individual of the ‘third country’ that is a shareholder, the relevant information about the shareholder(s) needs to be included

Additional evidence that may be requested regarding commercial dependence.

Cooperation agreements with third-country customers or suppliers (including shareholders if relevant), when they could confer ‘control’ over the company.

e) Financial links conferring control

Evidence to be provided in Annex XIII - Part 2 regarding financial dependence:

- Information on shareholders providing financing to the company, indicating the type of financing and nature and degree of ‘control’.

Additional evidence that may be requested regarding financial dependence:

In case of third-country or third-country entity shareholder that provides financial contribution, any supporting document (loans, instruments of constitution, agreements) that justify the financial contribution.

f) Other sources of control

There might be other sources of ‘control’ specific to each case. Annex XIII - Part 2 shall be filled with all the information about any other means, process or link ultimately conferring ‘control’ to a ‘third country’ or ‘third-country entity’.
