

Preliminary Market Consultation
On
EGNOS V2 Hardware Maintenance / EGNOS V3 Maintenance
EUSPA/MC/24/26

1 Introduction

The European Geostationary Navigation Overlay Service (EGNOS) is providing services since 2009 and its exploitation is under the responsibility of the European Union Agency for the Space Programme (EUSPA).

Version 1 of EGNOS System was initially developed in early 2000's. Version 2, currently under operation, is based on this Version 1 and has been subject to evolutions aiming at enhancing its services and solving obsolescence situations. The EGNOS V2 system infrastructure is operated by the EGNOS Service Provider (ESP), an Air Navigation Service Provider (ANSP) certified by the European Union Aviation Safety Agency (EASA), engaged by EUSPA to provide the EGNOS services. EGNOS V2 is to be replaced by a new generation system named EGNOS V3, which is currently under development. Two major releases EGNOS V3.1 and EGNOS V3.2 have been contracted: the first EGNOS V3 release (EGNOS V3.1) will ensure the legacy Single Frequency service with improved robustness and security, and EGNOS V3.2 will ensure new Dual Frequency Multi-constellation service and RIMS network extension.

In this context, EUSPA is considering launching procurements to address EGNOS V2 Hardware Maintenance and V3 Maintenance services and would like to consult the market to assess its readiness to undertake the services and to understand the terms and conditions according to which this could happen, as further described hereinafter. The interested economic operators are invited to take part in this market consultation to facilitate the understanding of the market situation and the available feasible solutions under the conditions provided herewith.

EUSPA is launching the present market consultation, according to article 169 of Financial Regulation 2024/2509¹.

Based on the outcome of the market consultation EUSPA may decide to prepare EGNOS V2/V3 Maintenance Services procurements, which will allow EGNOS V2/V3 infrastructure to be maintained in operating conditions.

Pursuant to article 14 b) of Space Regulation 2021/696² in procurement procedures for the implementation of the EU Space Programme the contracting authority shall ensure effective competition and, where possible, avoid reliance on a single provider, in particular for critical equipment and services, while taking into account the objectives of technological independence and continuity of services.

Background information on EGNOS V2/V3 System and Maintenance Services description and Service Level Agreement, are included in the Appendices B to F of this Market Consultation (to be delivered by the Agency against submission of signed NDU as described in Section 6 of this document).
